"Ready And Forward"

Greetings Troopers,

We have stood watch awaiting your arrival. We now welcome you to the greater Kansas City – Leavenworth area. As we roll out the red carpet, we thank you for the opportunity to host this very special annual time set aside to come together to renew friendships and share past events.

We will honor and celebrate the history and legacy of our Buffalo Soldiers. We will revel in their accomplishments. We will share their story with all who gather to listen!

Our young and young in heart will join to embrace how things were done on the dusty trails and now in classrooms, laboratories, and field expeditions. While our troopers explored this great country as viewed from the vantage point of riding tall in the saddle, our youth will study and prepare for their future through hands on learning and lectures in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM). Our Buffalo Soldiers will be invited to share some of their TRAIL BLAZING exploits with our future troopers. These youngsters will one day tell others about the time they gathered around to hear how history was made from the mouths of history makers.

Can you believe just twenty-five years ago, on July 25, 1992, General Colin L. Powell, then the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, dedicated our Buffalo Soldier National Monument? Well, we will take a trip back down memory lane to Fort Leavenworth, KS to remember with a rededication ceremony. We celebrate the talented sculptor, Mr. Eddie Dixon. And appreciate the relentless drive of the project coordinator, CMDR Carlton Philpot. We miss the enthusiasm of Trooper James G. Madison. And enjoy our fortune that Trooper James Alexander continues to inspire us all. So many helped bring this wonderful tribute to fruition along with the Circle of Firsts. So we invite all supporters and contributors to join us in remembering.

There is so much to see and do as in all of our respective chapter cities. Yet, there just is not enough time to get to it all. However, we trust you will enjoy the plans we've laid out. Please ask about any additional areas of interest not included in the informational guides provided.

Again, welcome! We delight in hosting your visit.

READY and FORWARD!!

Chapter President
